H. E. DONALDSON,

THE WONDERS OF A WATCH.

Very few who carry a watch ever think of the unceasing labor it performs under what would be considered shabby treatment by any other machinery.

There are many who think that a watch ought to run for years without cleaning or a drop of oil. Read this and judge for yourself. The main wheel in an ordinary American watch makes four (4) revolutions a day of 24 hours, or 1,440 in a year. Next the center wheel 25 revolutions in a day, or 8,760 in a year. The third wheel 192 in a day, or 69,984 in a year. The fourth wheel 2,400 in a day, or 876,000 in a year. The fifth, or escape wheel 12,960 in a day, or 4,720,800 in a year. The ticks or beats are 388,800 in a day or 141,612,000 in a year.

DOES YOUR WATCH NEED REPAIRING?

And do you want it to give you entire satisfaction? If so bring it to

A GOOD TIME KEEPER.

QUICK WINDING WATERBURY WATCH.

Has a jeweled movement and is cased in coin silver and gold filled cases. American machinery and brains have added beauty and elegance to a watch that was always noted as a GOOD TIME KEEPER. It is a low priced watch. No cheap Swiss watch, made by the foreign labor system can compare with them. We have a large selection and would be pleased to show you.

Trust us with your repairing and we will do you a satisfactory piece of work.

KEWIN, The Jeweler
No. 6 East First Street.

—Miss Katie McMaster is visiting in Polo.

—Sheriff Stainbrook took Patrick McGinn to Egin today.

—Mrs. Anna Worthington is entertaining Mrs. Mary Wadsworth, of Polo.

—Jacob Hill has returned from a visit to his boyhood home among the hills of New York state.

—Harold Boughton, of Cherokee, Iowa, is here to spend the summer with his mother, Mrs. R. C. Filson.

—Frank Schmucker and Bob Wilson depart tomorrow for the races at Aurora and from there to Jackson Park.

—John Colvill, a resident of Lee county since 1837 and for thirty-five years postmaster at Paw Paw, came up from that town yesterday to visit at the J. H. Thompson home.

—Mrs. Miller, of Sublette, who has been at Elgin and the county house for a number of months, was again brought to this city this morning, and in Judge Farrand's court found insane.

—J. Leander Hess is spending his vacation at his dairy farm in South Dixon, painting and fixing things up generally. He and his partner, J. H. Cropsey, intend making this the model farm of the county.

—Misses Minnie and Nellie Decker left on the early train for Chicago this morning to attend the teachers' congress, which is being held there this week. After the meeting closes they will spend a few days at the World's Fair grounds.

—Yesterday about noon a farm house belonging to John Shepard, south east of Nachusa, and occupied by a Mr. Hunt and family, caught fire (supposedly from a defective flue) and was entirely consumed. The house being uninsured, was a total loss; the furniture was insured at nearly its value.

—Eight or ten years ago Mrs. J. G. Messer of South Dixon, suffered considerable pain in one of her toes, which has troubled her off and on ever since. More recently it became highly inflamed and an excrescence was developed more in the nature of a wart than a corn. This was removed; but the result was a sore which refused to heal. In dressing the toe yesterday, her daughter discovered in the sore a black speck which appeared to be a hard foreign substance. This was removed, and proved to be the source of all the trouble, a portion of a steel needle which forty-five years ago had penetrated Mrs. Messer's foot and remained there imbedded ever since.

—Heretofore the circumstances surrounding the official declaration of cases of insanity, created by law, have not only rendered necessary an amount of publicity very trying to a sensitively nervous organization, but even seemed to associate the misfortune of disease in some sense with misconduct. Before a patient showing slight evidences of mental derangement could be properly cared for, it has been necessary to bring him to the county seat, where the judge has had to summon a jury and proceed very much as in the case of a trial for an offense. This has been recently changed by statute. Now the judge, with the county clerk or his deputy, can proceed to the home of the patient, and are empowered to summon two physicians, and there, with or without a jury, examine into the mental condition of the patient, and the judge can on the report of the commission thus organized, officially declare on the case. The law is lame in that no provision is made for fees or expenses of the parties conducting the investigation.

—While our statute books are doubtless overburdened with laws that are practically inoperative because there never existed any real necessity for their passage, there is occasion for some laws that have not heretofore existed in this state. Laws for the protection of the helpless and dependent have in not a few instances been weak or entirely lacking. While we cannot legislate religion, morality, justice or decency into the human soul, we can compel in some degree the performance of obligations voluntarily assumed. Many a brute or worthless wretch after bringing a family of children into the world has deserted them, leaving an injured and discouraged wife to bear the burden of their support, or transformed them into paupers dependent on the county. Poverty is no disgrace, but for an able-bodied man to subject his wife and helpless offspring to the chances of starvation or compel others to assume their support, is a crime; and by recent act of legislature it is so regarded, and no man hereafter can be guilty of this failure to meet his obligations to his family and society without rendering himself liable to criminal prosecution and punishment.

—During the absence of the family of a farmer living north of Flage station, his house was entered yesterday and provisions in considerable quantity, together with canned fruit and a number of knives and forks, were stolen. A little later a couple of men in a buggy were arrested just east of Franklin Grove and were brought to Dixon last night for examination. The knives and forks were found in a field near where the arrest was made and where they had been thrown. The canned fruit was found in the possession of the parties, who had with them three grip-sacks filled with clothing. They claimed to have gone to the World's Fair from Iowa, and to have purchased the horse and buggy in Chicago with which to make their return trip. The figures 142 were found on one of the harness and also on the underside of the buggy seat, which on the Liveryman's directory would indicate that these articles came from the stable of Liveryman Boone of Lake View, North Chicago. They may have been stolen; if so, it will add materially to the seriousness of the charges already preferred against the young fellows. The crime charged having been committed in Ogle county, the accused were remanded to Rochelle, where on examination they were placed under $300 bail, and are this day lodged in jail at Oregon.

—Thomas Higgins, of Neenah, Wisconsin, is a pleasant visitor in our city.

—Judge J. D. Crabtree and family went to the World's Fair City this morning.

—Joseph Petersberger and family are spending this week at the World's Fair.

—Frank McCrasky, of Chicago, is being entertained at the Leonard Andrus home.

—Dr. J. W. Chiles has gone to Polo to take the Hargrave treatment for alcoholism.

—A. E. Phillips left for the World's Fair City this morning to visit for a few days.

—Miss Mary Woodford has returned from a very pleasant visit with friends in Polo.

—LeRoy Swigart, of Palmyra, rides a new bicycle purchased this week from C. A. Lucas.

—Some of our best tennis players will go to Polo to-morrow to play a match game there.

—Orlando F. Herrick, in early youth known as Joe, the fat boy, has returned to his home in Princeville.

—Mrs. W. H. Williamson, of Hennepin avenue, is entertaining her mother and sister from Brooklyn, N. Y.

—Prof. Rearick has gone to Chicago to attend a meeting of the Business Educators Association of America.

—Thomas J. McBride, of New York City, is here on a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John McBride, of East Fifth street.

—The thirteen young ladies of the J. J. club enjoyed a banquet and pleasant reunion at the Nachusa house last night, and while at the table were photographed by flash light.

—Albert Yates telegraphed last evening to his business neighbor, R. J. Kewin, that his father-in-law, I. C. Smith, was not seriously injured by the accident in Chicago Monday.

—Prof. C. W. Boucher has gone to Napoleon, Ohio, to visit for two weeks. Mrs. Boucher has shipped to him through the agency of C. A. Lucas a pneumatic bicycle as a birthday present.

—Charles Heile and a friend left Chicago on their bicycles yesterday morning about three o'clock, and notwithstanding a delay caused by a broken wheel which had to be repaired, they reached Dixon before seven o'clock last evening.

—Ladies most interested in the male inhabitants at camp "Shoemaker Rest" at the Truman Farm, went up to that pleasant resort this morning and spent the day. Wives and sweethearts make welcome guests to men in camp who have been doing their own cooking for a week.

—The Midnight Club and friends, about thirty couples, have chartered the steamer and will leave the dock shortly after seven o'clock tomorrow evening, accompanied by Fargo's band and orchestra, for Myers' Island. A general good time is anticipated. All are requested to not forget their baskets.

—The Dixon bicyclists have become convinced that their papers were in error in claiming the victory for Dixon in the bicycle race last Thursday night. Reuben Clark, representing the Sterling, club came over to Dixon yesterday and submitted sufficient evidence to show that Sterling had won fairly, Sheldon having fallen over after reaching the line. Misleading telephone messages to Dixon caused the mistaken impression on Dixon's part. Sterling Gazette.

—Sterling's representative presented a somewhat plausible story; but our boys are not entirely satisfied; and it seems to them and to us that the only way to decide the matter is to renew the race under conditions that will preclude any dispute.

—We had the pleasure this morning of a conversation with the two cultured gentlemen from Calcutta who are at Morris & Son's store representing the India Tea Company, where they have consented to remain over to-morrow. The India Tea Company is probably the wealthiest corporation in the world, its capital stock amounting to more than $16,000,000 and having in its employ about one and a half million natives and Europeans in all parts of the world. There are three or four hundred in this country—ten sent to the Columbian Exposition, under control of Mr. Blychenden, World's Fair commissioner, from which corps these gentlemen come to us. Their names are Sheikh Abdel Kariem and Sheikh Aynudien. The word Sheikh is a title indicating their rank or caste as the highest in the Mohammedan faith. Their attractive dress is the uniform of the company they represent. The first named gentleman speaks fourteen languages. He has visited this country before, twelve years ago, when for a time he resided in New York, superintending the shipment of tea to Calcutta. Call and see these gentlemen and try the flavor of their tea.

SEVEN OF 'EM NOW.
Four More Denver Banks Suspend Their Business.
OTHERS HAVE TO WITHSTAND RUNS.
All Claim To Be Able To Pay Their Liabilities, But Need Time To Raise the Cash—An Epidemic of Failures in Trade—Big Dry Goods Firm Goes Under—A Bank at Fort Scott, Kansas, Closes—Chicago Chemical Not to Resume.

DENVER, July 19.—Three national banks—the Union National, the Commercial National, and the Bank of Commerce—have closed their doors owing to the heavy demands of excited depositors. The Mercantile bank, a small private institution doing business in the Mining Exchange building, also suspended owing to the close of the Union bank, through which its clearances were made. The suspension of three savings banks Monday so alarmed the community that at the hour for opening the banks crowds had gathered in front of nearly all the financial institutions. At the German and City National banks the run was heavy, although the First National, the People's, and one or two others felt the unusual pressure to some extent.

First Concerns to Shut Down.
The streets were full of people discussing the situation. It was an orderly crowd, however, and there was much sensible and conservative talk. The run on the People's bank soon exhausted itself and by 11 o'clock affairs had resumed their normal condition. At the City National the run was over by 1 o'clock and at the other banks except the German the excitement was all over by noon. At the German National the crowd kept in line in front of the teller's window all afternoon. A few minutes before 10 o'clock there was posted on the front and side doors of the Union National bank a notice signed by R. W. Woodbury, president, announcing that the Union National bank was in the hands of the controller of the currency; that it had paid to depositors in round numbers $1,000,000 in the past month and had $1,600,000 in assets to meet remaining liabilities, which amount to about $200,000, and that if promised to the bank were kept it would reopen in a few days.

At Two of the Other Banks.
The Commercial National did not open its doors at all, preferring to avoid the inevitable run. This notice was posted: "This bank has gone into liquidation by order of the board of directors." At the National Bank of Commerce there was a long line at the window of the paying teller within a minute of the time the doors were unlocked at 10 o'clock. A great deal of gold coin was at the teller's and for thirty minutes he passed out the money as fast as checks were presented. But at 10:30 a notice was hung at each of the doors reading as follows: "This bank is closed. By order of the board of directors."

The Fourth to Lay Down.
The Mercantile bank, recently incorporated with a capital stock of $100,000, and located in the Mining Exchange building, also closed its doors with W. F. Robinson as assignee. C. E. Gird, the present city auditor, is the president of the bank, and the directors of the concern are considered as being among Denver's most substantial business men. The suspension of payment was brought about by the closing of the Union National bank, through which the Mercantile had made clearances. It is confidently stated that the bank's depositors will receive every dollar due them. This bank had been in operation only a few months, and had comparatively few deposits, consequently its suspension caused very little excitement.

Where Runs Were Withstood.
The City National paid out about $80,000 and the run stopped, while at the First National $200,000 sufficed to satisfy depositors. At the State National the run was broken after $100,000 were paid out. The German National paid out $70,000 up to the closing hour and the run was still on at the Denver Savings bank there was a run in the morning but it stopped at noon, no money being paid out, as the bank demanded the legal notice.

WRECKS AMONG THE MERCHANTS.
A Large Dry Goods Firm Succumbs—Other Financial Troubles.
The store of the McNamara Dry Goods company, doing business at Sixteenth and California streets, is in the hands of the sheriff. Attachments aggregating $250,000 were placed on the firm at an early hour. The Union National bank, which itself suspended in the morning, precipitated the trouble by securing the first attachment. The rest of the attachments followed in rapid succession.

M. S. Noah, installment furniture dealer, assigned to Calvin C. Hill. His assets are placed at $10,000, and his liabilities at $10,000, about equally divided between local and eastern creditors.

Albert Nelson, the well-known restaurant man of Curtis street, made an assignment for the benefit of his creditors to Frank Anderson. He places his assets at about $111,510 and his liabilities at about $90,735.

The John Mount Lumber company was attached on a claim from the German National bank for $135,300. The sheriff placed three custodians in charge of the company's property and the company then made an assignment to William B. Palmer. No schedule was prepared by the company. Luther J. Wygant, tiles and grates, 1600 Court Place, assigned to Robert J. Pickin. Assets, $14,765.52; liabilities, $14,830.43.

The Evans Littlefield Confectionery company assigned to George A. Smith; no schedule presented.

"The Hub," conducted by Engle & Harris, general merchandise, at 2301 to 2309 Larimer street, assigned to George Burger. The assets are placed at $18,100. The liabilities are placed at $4,064.31.

Hyman & Cohen, proprietors of the "Bee Hive" shoe store at 1033 Larimer street, assigned to Manne Hyman. No schedule.

McWhirter & Driggs, mantels and tiles at 421 Sixteenth street, assigned to A. G. Masker. No schedule is given.

SOME MORE FAILURES IN KANSAS.
First National at Fort Scott Fails to Open—Others Reported.

FORT SCOTT, Kan., July 19.—The First National bank of this city has failed to open its doors for business and the first intimation any one had of the financial condition of the bank was when the following notice was put up on the front door at 9 o'clock: "Owing to steady withdrawals of deposits and our inability to collect assets, we deem it to be the best interest of all concerned that this bank be temporarily closed. Assets are more than three times liabilities and depositors will lose nothing. By order of directors." The First National was established in 1871 and was the oldest and largest national bank in southeastern Kansas. It had a capital of $500,000, fully paid up and had always stood all runs.

Top State Bank, July 19.—State Bank Commissioner Reidt had received notice of the failures of the Bank of Richmond and of the Farmers' and Merchants' bank of Oswatimie and has gone there.

A Suspended Bank That Will Not Resume.
CHICAGO, July 19.—The Chemical National bank reorganizing committee has made a report to the stockholders and creditors of that institution against a reorganization of the bank. The committee, after careful consideration, has come to the conclusion that at this time further efforts at resumption are useless.

DOINGS AT THE WHITE CITY.
Uruguay Opens Her Exhibit and Brazil Displays a Building.
WORLD'S FAIR GROUND, Chicago, July 19.—The opening of the exhibit of Uruguay in Agricultural hall was a religious function presided over by Archbishop Ryan, who sprinkled the exhibit with holy water and read a brief ceremony. The exhibit consists of cereals, food preparations, vegetable products, furs (mostly wool) and wines, and makes a handsome showing.

This afternoon Brazil's building, which is a highly ornate structure just north of the Fisheries building, will be dedicated. The display is highly creditable, that country having appropriated $600,000 for the purpose of showing the world what it produces.

The headquarters of the bureau of awards is the most busy place about the fair now. Most of the difficulties in the new system have been smoothed over and the juries are getting into shape rapidly. In spite of the kick by certain harvester companies field trials have begun at Dunham's farm, Wayne county, this state, the McCormicks, Whiteley company, Deere & Mansur (Moline, Ill.) and others contesting.

Three hundred cadets from West Point will go into camp at the fair grounds Aug. 17.

The paid attendance is crawling up a little. There were 98,071 people who paid their way in yesterday.

Paul Du Chaila, the noted traveler and explorer of Africa and many other unexplored lands, as well as the author of several interesting books of travel and exploration, including one on the Vikings, that have proved of absorbing interest to young and old alike, is in Chicago.

HELD RESPONSIBLE
Coroner's Verdict on the Cold Storage Horror.
CRIMINAL NEGLIGENCE CHARGED.
Director of Works Burnham, Fire Marshal Murphy, and the President and Secretary of the Company Declared Blamable and Held to the Grand Jury—What They Think of the Matter—A Monument for the Dead Donated.

CHICAGO, July 19.—After its prolonged investigation the coroner's jury investigating the World's fair cold storage calamity has reached a verdict. The jury held to the grand jury the following persons: D. H. Burnham, director of works at the World's fair; Fire Marshal Edward Murphy, of the World's fair fire department; J. B. Skinner, president of the Hercules Iron company; Charles A. McDonald, secretary and treasurer of the Hercules Iron company. The jury was out two hours, but reached its conclusion much more quickly than the time it was out would indicate, as there were sixteen deaths the causes of which they were called to consider, and each represented a separate case.

The verdict was the same in all the cases and reads as follows: "We, the jury, find that the deceased came to their death from the fire in the cold storage building at the World's fair grounds on July 10, 1903, and we, the jury, find from the evidence presented, that Charles A. McDonald, John B. Skinner, D. H. Burnham and J. B. Skinner, be held to the grand jury for criminal negligence, and there be held in discharged by the course of the law." The indicted men will all give bail today. "This is a great surprise to me," said Mr. Burnham. "I was never officially notified of the unsafe condition of the Cold Storage tower and Engineer Shanklin never reported the tower as dangerous."

What Murphy and Skinner Say.
Fire Marshal Murphy was apparently very much affected by the result of the investigation. "I did not expect it," he said. "I think it unjust and uncalled for. I was neither negligent nor was I guilty of misconduct at that time."

President John B. Skinner of the Hercules Iron works, said the verdict was a surprise. "The fire department and ourselves cannot both be guilty in this case. It must be one or the other. Our conclusions were never the same after the alarm was turned in. Besides, I am certain no liability can follow. There is no evidence against us to justify that."

ARE SHY OF SUCH BUILDINGS.
Insurance People Afraid of Storage Warehouses—Fitzpatrick's Remarks.
S. A. Rothwell, assistant secretary of the Traders Insurance company, was the first witness examined yesterday. He said that Murphy had told him that the warehouse was a bad risk. Insurance men all considered cold storage warehouses bad risks because of the danger from explosion, and he had repeatedly refused to insure such places from explosions. E. C. Shanklin, chief engineer of the World's fair, said the architect and owners were responsible for the failure to complete the tower according to the plans.

Right here the coroner's jury floundered into it was to see that the "collar" was put on the smoke pipe. It was developed that three or four buildings had been condemned and work stopped on them by the World's fair officials because of some sort of deficiencies. The warehouse people had repeatedly refused to heed the danger to the tower resulting from the absence of the collar.

Hans Rehfeldt, a fireman, swore that Murphy's account of the rescue of Captain Fitzpatrick was true, and also to the important point that no orders were given for the tower to be taken down without waiting for their own accord without waiting for orders.

Testimony of Chief Sweeney.
Chief Sweeney, of the Chicago fire department, swore he had received a report that the warehouse was unsafe, endorsed the same and sent it to the fair to be given to the proper authorities. He thought it was the business of the fair authorities to see that the building was safe. President Skinner, of the Cold Storage company, then tried to get the chief to say that the fire was not properly handled. Chief Sweeney finally admitted that he would probably have chopped into the base of the tower had he been there and known as much about the character of the tower then as he did now.

Several other witnesses testified, but threw no further light on the matter and the case went to the jury with the results already stated.

A Monument for the Dead.
W. H. Mullins, of Salem, O., owner of the Columbus statue which stood before the cold storage building at the World's fair grounds, has donated it to the city to be placed as a monument over the graves of the unidentified dead who were buried at Oakwoods.

Four Times Bitten by a Copperhead.
DENVER STATION, Pa., July 19.—Miss Anna Brant, a daughter of George Brant, who lives at the entrance of Ridge View park, two miles east of here, was bitten four times by a copperhead snake. Miss Brant stood in the kitchen and the snake bit her twice in each foot. She was in her bare feet. Bandages were applied to her ankles and whiskey given, but all efforts to produce sleep have failed and the young lady struggles violently. It is feared that she cannot recover.

Natural Gas Sends In Its Card.
TORONTO, July 19.—Natural gas has been struck near Newton Brook, Ont. William Holmes, at work in a well fifty feet below the surface, signalled that he was in trouble and a man named Sharp descended to search for him. He did not return, and after water was used to displace the gas and the two bodies were brought up. Holmes was dead and Sharp cannot recover.

The Base Ball Experts.
CHICAGO, July 19.—The scores made by League clubs are reported as follows: At Baltimore—Brooklyn 5, Baltimore 10; at Cincinnati—Louisville 13, Cincinnati 8; at Cleveland—Pittsburgh 9, Cleveland 14; at Chicago—St. Louis 9, Chicago 4; at Washington—Philadelphia 9, Washington 11; at New York—Boston 7, New York 8.

Death of a Horse Trainer.
SARATOGA, N. Y., July 19.—James Lee, the well known horse trainer, died of pneumonia.

PAILED TO AGREE ON A SCALE.
The Amalgamated and the Iron Manufacturers' Association and Manufacturers' conferences to reach a settlement of the wage scale and the ending of all conferences has rendered the situation more than critical. As a result of the disagreement union mills, or at least those that paid union rates in the past, will continue closed or resume operations on a non-union basis. It is stated that it is not probable that any of the manufacturers will attempt to start their works for at least four or probably six weeks. In the meantime thousands of iron workers will be forced to seek employment elsewhere or remain idle.

The Amalgamated association will have its modified scale printed and present it to individual firms for signature. President Garland said that "the situation does not now assume the aspect of a strike, and will not until the mill owners order a resumption on terms of their own making. We do not anticipate that this will be done, and believe that the manufacturers will sign our scale as soon as they are ready to resume. The financial situation, together with small collections, has had much to do with the failure to reach a settlement at present."

A DEVASTATING HAIL STORM.
The Stones Lay an Inch Deep for Two Days on the Ground.
YANKTON, S. D., July 19.—On Saturday afternoon last a storm of wind, rain, and hail visited the extreme northern portion of Cedar county, Neb. It had been supposed that the visitation was but a mild affair, with no serious results, but reports have now reached Yankton which indicate that within a radius of twenty square miles $500,000 worth of growing crops, fruit trees, and window glass were destroyed.

From Little's east to Menominee in Antelope county scarcely a farm escaped injury. Four miles will not cover the width of the storm and grain fields and prairie are as smooth as though heavy iron rollers had passed over them. The trees along the roads for miles are stripped of leaves and huge splintered stumps tell a story of a fearful wind. Two days after the storm hailstones lay an inch deep along the roads.

Going to Boom the Fair.
CINCINNATI, July 19.—E. R. Montford, editor of The Herald and Presbyter, in an interview said: "The religious newspapers, fully 800 in number, scattered all over the United States, now propose to join hands and boom the World's fair. Heretofore those papers have been doing all in their power to further Sunday closing, and have favored the plan of non-attendance of Christians at the exposition." Following out this plan of action The Herald and Presbyter, the Western Christian Advocate and the Journal and Messenger, will this week commence booming the fair editorially.

Mayor Martin's Sunday Outing.
DULUTH, July 19.—A complaint charging Mayor Martin, of West Duluth, with malfeasance in office is the result of a picnic held on Sunday, July 9. The celebration was a patriotic one and the mayor took a leading part. Liquor was freely sold on the grounds and the demonstration turned out to be largely a drunken riot. Street fighting, in which the mayor took part, that grew out of a discussion of the affair encouraged the Law and Order League to make complaints against the mayor and the two men who sold the liquor.

Carnegie to Oppose Dempsey's Pardon.
PITTSBURGH, July 19.—Contrary to expectations, the deposition of confessors Gallagher and Davidson, exonerating Dempsey and Beatty from all connection with the alleged Homestead poisoning, were not taken. The gentlemen concerned in the arrangement to let the convicted prisoner and self accused perjurer swear that he is unworthy of belief are relieved. It is reliably stated that the Carnegie company will oppose the pardon of Hugh F. Dempsey.

Saddle and Harnessmakers' Union.
ST. LOUIS, July 19.—The seventh annual convention of the National Saddle and Harnessmakers' Union of America has opened in the Telephone building. About forty delegates, representing a total membership of 1,400, are in attendance. No serious grievances have been reported from any district and it is believed no grave questions will be discussed. The constitution will be slightly revised at this session.

Two More Fights for Roby.
CHICAGO, July 19.—Two important matches have been made by the Columbian Athletic club. George Dixon, the colored wonder, and Solly Smith, who recently knocked out Griffin, agreed to fight a finish contest on Sept. 18 for a purse of $8,000. George Johnson, champion of England, and Johnny Griffin were also matched to box to a finish for $2,000 a side and a purse of $5,000.

Terrible Tornado in Italy.
ROME, July 19.—A tornado swept down suddenly on Voghera and Casteggio, in Piedmont. Hundreds of buildings were wrecked. In one section of Voghera hardly a house is left standing. Not a structure in either town was left intact. Hundreds of persons were injured. The number of dead is not known, as the bodies are buried in the ruins. Only seven bodies have been recovered.

Exports and Imports of Gold.
WASHINGTON, July 19.—The chief of the bureau of statistics in his statement of the exports and imports of gold reports that the exports from the United States during the twelve months ended June 30, 1903, amounted to $108,680,844, and the imports $21,174,881. During the corresponding period of the preceding year the exports were $50,193,327; imports, $49,069,404.

The Congress of Pedagogues.
CHICAGO, July 19.—The Chautauquans and university extension were the features of interest at the Congress of Education at the Art Institute. The proceedings were participated in by Bishop Vincent, Henri Gaillard, of Paris; W. E. Harris, of Dublin; Dr. R. D. Roberts, of London; Henry Wade Rogers, of the Northwestern university, and others of note.

An Incident of Western Life.
GUTHRIE, O. T., July 19.—For several days members of the Starr gang of outlaws have been in the vicinity of Stillwater. The people becoming aware of this fact the banks were closed and guards placed about them and every storekeeper armed himself thoroughly. The town is now a veritable arsenal.

Summer Complaint

Last fall I was taken with a kind of summer complaint, accompanied with a wonderful diarrhoea. Soon after my wife's sister, who lives with us, was taken in the same way. We used almost every thing without benefit. Then I said, let us try Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which we did, and that cured us right away. I think much of it, as it did for me what it was recommended to do. John Hertzler, Bethel, Berks Co., Pa. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by W. D. Duffin, Druggist.

IMPS OF THE DEVIL

Rivals of Jesse Pomeroy at South Chicago.

A QUARTETTE OF YOUNG FIENDS.

They Set Upon a Companion, Beat Him Unmercifully, and Threw Him Into Calumet River and Brown Him—His Body Recovered But the Whereabouts of His Murderers Unknown—Police Prosecuting a Search.

CHICAGO, July 19.—Four boys aged from 12 to 13 years have fled from South Chicago after murdering a companion aged 10 and flinging his body into Calumet river near the Illinois Steel company's docks. Detectives are in pursuit of the four young criminals, and the community is wrought up to a great pitch of excitement over this terrible instance of youthful depravity, which recalls the case of Jesse Pomeroy and other so-called boy fiends. The murderers are two brothers named Coffey and two Polish boys whose names the police at present refuse to divulge. The victim was Michael Tuohy, of 934 Green Bay avenue, and the crime was committed July 12, since which time until Monday all trace of him was lost.

Heaten and Thrown Into the River.

On the afternoon noted young Tuohy went out to play as usual and while on the river bank met the Coffey boys, with whom he was well acquainted. While engaged in boyish sports the Polish boys joined the party and pretty soon the Tuohy boy did something which the others objected to and a fight was precipitated, in the course of which the four mentioned set upon their companion and after beating him badly threw him into the river. Terrified at the awful deed they had committed the four young criminals hid themselves until evening, afraid to venture out for fear their crime had become known. They had been seen by a number of people playing with Tuohy along the river and did not know but what there had been an eye-witness to the fatal fight.

Confessed the Crime to a Boy.

By dark they had resolved to run away from home in the hope of escaping the consequences of their misdeed, and after a few hours' deliberation proceeded to carry their resolve into effect. As they were leaving the town they met a companion named John McVerry, to whom they confided their plight, telling him that they had fought with Tuohy and ended it by pitching him into the river. McVerry, also a young boy, was nearly frightened into a fit by the guilty secret imparted to him, and for that reason did not tell anybody what he knew until Tuohy's disappearance and the disappearance of the other four boys had raised a stir and the officers were searching for them.

FOUND THE VICTIM'S BODY.

And the Police Searching for the Young Criminals.

When the murdered boy did not return to his home his parents came naturally anxious and this anxiety was increased when on Thursday morning a rumor, which sprang from nobody knows where, began to circulate to effect the fact that their boy had been drowned while bathing in the river. The police were at once notified and a careful investigation showed that he had been seen with the other boys. Inquiry at the home of the Coffeys developed the startling fact that since the previous night they had not been seen.

As the days went over without any news of the missing boys and the excitement over their disappearance became more intense young McVerry told the police what he knew and said that the murder had been committed on a mud-screw at the Illinois Steel company's docks. Monday the life-saving crew dragged the river at the spot indicated by McVerry, and his story was quickly confirmed by the recovery of young Tuohy's body in such condition that no doubt exists that a murder was committed as described.

The corpse lay between the mud-screw and the dock and was completely drowned, just as the unfortunate boy was when last seen. The idea of an accident while bathing is completely disposed of by this fact, and the flight of the four young criminals, entirely bears out the statement made by McVerry before the body was found.

The coroner has begun an inquest, but postponed it until Friday morning to enable the detectives to continue their investigations and if possible arrest the Coffey boys and the Polish accomplices. McVerry is being closely watched, as it is thought that he knows more than he has told the officers.

Founded a School for Young Laborers.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., July 19.—Colonel Richard T. Auchmuty died at his summer home at Lenox. He and his wife paid all its expenses. A year ago it was incorporated. J. Pierpont Morgan gave the school an endowment fund of $50,000. Colonel Auchmuty gave $150,000 at the same time.

From Springfield.
A partisan is a man who will lie for his party and say mean things about those who oppose him in politics. Democratic editors have always had a monopoly of this business, although the sockless followers of Jerry Simpson are crowding them just now; at least an occasional squeal would indicate as much.
Tom Erwin is getting to be quite a favorite with the Springfield girls. He is continually receiving invitations to parties and picnics, and if he accepted them all he would have to join the Republican party in '96 so that he could retain his present position and fill out his engagements. He is very popular in the Secretary's office, is a good clerk, and might be governor some day if it was not for the fact that he is also a good Democrat.
A prominent Democrat concluded that he would be an applicant for the position of insurance commissioner, which was created by the last legislature. So he called upon the governor and presented his credentials. "What do you know about insurance?" asked his high mightiness. "Well," said the applicant, "I've had some experience in that line, still I am no expert. I've got a good many friends, however, who think that I am able to fill the place, and if you will look over my list of signatures you will find that I am backed by some of the best and most influential Democrats in the state."
"Yes, yes," said the governor, "that's what they all say, by my opinion is that you don't know a d—m thing about the business." "I'll tell you what it is, Governor Altgeld," said the now thoroughly disgusted applicant, "I'll acknowledge that I am not very well posted in insurance matters, but I'll be d—d if I don't think that I know as much about running this new department as you do about running the governor's office." And now John Peter has one vote less.

PURSUED BY THE TIDE.
An Exciting Race For Life Before an Approaching Tidal Wave.
At the little town of Granville, in Normandy, there are treacherous tides, which suddenly overwhelm the low shore. Two friends were one day absorbed in examining the rocks at some distance from the shore and in collecting the numerous marine plants which abound in their crevices when suddenly one of the pair called out: "Mercy on us! I forgot the tide, and here it comes."
Turning toward the shore they saw a stream of water running rapidly between them and the sand. They quickly descended the rocks, but before they could reach the ground "the sand was in stripes and the water in sheets." They then ran for the shore, but before they had proceeded far they were met by a fisher-girl, who called:
"The wave, the wave! It is coming! Turn and run for the rock or you are lost!"
They did turn and saw far out at sea a large wave rolling toward the shore. The girl led the way, and the two friends strained every nerve to keep pace with her. As they neared the rock the wave was beginning to roll in, and for the last 10 steps they were up to their knees in water, but they had reached the goal.
"Quick, quick!" cried the girl, pointing upward. "There is the passage to the cross at the top, but if the second wave comes we shall be too late!"
She scrambled on for a hundred yards until she came to a fissure in the rock 6 or 7 feet wide, along which the water was rushing like a mill sluice. With some difficulty they reached the upper rock.
There they rested for a moment, when another great wave rolled in, and the water ran along the little platform where they were sitting. They rose and mounted the rocky points, which are never quite covered with water, and clustered together for support.
In a few moments the suspense was over. The girl pointed to the shore, where they could see people waving their handkerchiefs and whence came the faint sound of a cheer.
"They think the tide has turned," said she, "and they are shouting to cheer us."
She was right. The tide had turned. Another wave rolled up and wet their feet, but when it passed the water had fallen.—"Artistic Travel."

A Whole Army at Prayer.
During one of the numerous wars waged by France two centuries ago a strange scene took place near Saluzzo, a disputed outpost, which well illustrates the religious spirit which often prevailed among the soldiers of earlier times.
The French approached the besiegers' lines, and both armies were arranged for a fight. The sun shone from a cloudless sky. Every detail on each army in the field was visible to the other, and both were beheld at once from the citadel.
There were three French marshals present, and it was Schomberg's turn to command. He drew up his 20,000 men in four lines, with skirmishers in front, and the regular cavalry were placed at stated intervals, ready to charge.
In this impressive order, and in absolute silence, the French advanced until nearly within cannon shot, when at a signal the mass halted and simultaneously knelt down to pray. Then followed the order to attack, which was silently and cheerfully obeyed.
The battle was not to be, however, for Mazani, amid a volley of musketry, suddenly appeared, rode at a gallop between the armies and staid the incipient fight by bringing acceptable terms of peace.—Youth's Companion.

CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC
At Mt. Carroll, Ill.
Its standard is unequivocally high and is based upon the soundest principles of musical culture and practical value, in both vocal and instrumental the theoretical branches. The methods employed, are, as far as my knowledge goes, the best extant, while the artistic culture and enthusiasm of the well equipped teachers in that field is worthy of the most highly renowned standards of our musical capitals. 32A33dwtf

The Greatest Loss and Gain Sales
That it has ever been your opportunity to obtain First Class Merchandise at such astonishingly low prices. If you have prolonged your purchases, our advice is: Don't delay it one day, or one minute longer, as the time is here; and to strike while the iron is hot, is when the strike counts the most.
There certainly will be no better time for you to dress the men and boy's on such economical terms.
If you have boys who intend entering school, and will have to have new suits, there will be no time when you can dress them so economically as now. Even if it is a month before the opening of school.

To Miss this Prior to Taking Inventory Sale Means a Great Loss to You.
We extend a cordial invitation to everybody, whether you wish to buy or not.
